About High Hopes

Since 1984, High Hopes has been a beacon of support for children of all abilities, equipping them with the resources they need to thrive.

By becoming a sponsor, you help foster a community where hope, inclusion, and growth are embraced daily. Your support empowers us to continue offering our unique combination of preschool education and pediatric therapy, ensuring every child has the opportunity to build a strong and successful foundation. Together, let us build a community where hope and inclusion are cultivated, embraced, and shared.

Our mission is to equip children, youth, and their families with the skills necessary to succeed through education, therapeutic services, and loving support.
